4 PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

5 This Statement of Facts is based on the reports, documents, and notes furnished to U. S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement Special Agent Frank Gonzalez.

6 On April 4, 2008, at approximately 1635 hours, Tyge Erik MULDROW entered the United
7 States at the Calexico, CA West Port of Entry. MULDROW was the sole occupant driver of a
8 2000 Ford Explorer.

9 Customs and Border Protection (CBP) Officer Gould was assigned to vehicle primary
10 lane # 8 when the 2000 Ford Explorer approached her primary booth. MULDROW gave a 11 negative Customs Declaration. CBP Officer Gould noticed that MULDROW appeared to be 12 nervous when answering her questions. CBP Officer Gould noticed that MULDROW' leg was 13 shaking continuously. CBP Officer Gould also noticed that, MULDROW would not make eye
14 contact when he presented his identification and answering her questions. CBP Officer Gould
15 asked what the purpose of his trip to Mexico. MULDROW became nervous and began to become 16 verbally incoherent, and started stuttering his answer. MULDROW stated that he was going
17 home for the weekend and would be back to Mexico to continue work. Based on CBP Officer
18 Gould observations, she opted to refer MULDROW and his vehicle to secondary for further 19 inspection.

20 In the vehicle secondary lot, the CBP Officer Carp requested that CBP Officer Navarro
21 run his narcotic detector dog (NDD) on the vehicle. CBP Officer Navarro informed CBP Officer
22 Carp of an alert to the gas tank of the vehicle. CBP Officer Carp conducted an intensive 23 inspection of the vehicle and found the vehicle to contain vacuum-sealed packages in the gas
24 tank of the vehicle. A total of 9 packages were removed from the gas tank of the vehicle. One of 25 the packages was probed and a sample of a green leafy substance was obtained, which field
26 tested positive for marijuana. The 9 packages had a combined net weight of approximately 20.20
27 kilograms (44.44 pounds).

1 MULDROW was placed under arrest and advised of his rights per Miranda, which he
2 acknowledged and waived, agreeing to answer questions. MULDROW denied having any 3 knowledge of the marijuana concealed in the vehicle.

4 MULDROW was booked into the Imperial County Jail pending his initial appearance
5 before a U.S. Magistrate Judge.

6
7 Executed on April 5 2008, at 10:21 AM hours.

10 On the basis of the facts presented in the probable cause statement consisting of 3
11 page(s), I find probable cause to believe that the defendant(s) named in this probable statement
12 committed the offence on 4/4/2008 in violation of Title 21, United States Code, 13 Section(s) 952 and 960.
